Your first csc343 lecture?

- http://www.cdf.utoronto.ca/~csc343h/winter
- Everything is on the website (not Blackboard).
- Monday’s lecture materials are on the website.
- Read the course syllabus, also on the website.
- “Tutorials” will be the same as lectures: in the lecture hall, with me.

- The first lecture Prep exercises were due Sun night.
  - I will prorate the rest of them for late enrolers.
Anonymous Feedback

Can you please release weekly preps earlier in the week? People can be busy for an entire weekend, and it is not very fair for them to not have access to the prep before the weekend.
Course Announcements

Assignment 1

- It will be posted mid-week next week.
- By the end of next week you will be well prepared for the assignment.
- It’s due February 10th.

Some photos will be taken in Monday’s class (noon section only)

- Students in the first couple of rows may be in the pictures (but probably from the back).
- If you don’t want to be photographed, please sit further back.
